I. Welcome and Introductions – Dr. Saunders
   • Dr. Saunders welcomed both new and continuing members and showed a video about student expectations of the library. Also reviewed was the purpose of the committee and its role as an advisory body to the library.

II. Report of 24-hour study pilot– Dr. Saunders
   • Dr. Saunders announced the 24 hour study program will begin December 5, 2011 at 7:00 am and end December 14, 2011 at 9:00 pm. Each evening snacks will be provided to students. The entire building will be open. Security officers from Public Safety will be overseeing the building from 1 a.m. to 7 a.m.

III. Sample week – Dr. Saunders
   • During the week of October 17, the Library will be gathering statistics on exits and entrances during various times of the day. Other data critical to library operations will also be collected. The purpose of the sampling is to provide information that is requested in surveys sent to the Library from the federal government and other agencies.

IV. Collection Update – Bridget Euliano, Acquisitions Librarian
In FY10/11, the library acquired the following major electronic resources (descriptions of resources are from vendor websites):

- Cochrane Library Online - http://www.thecochranelibrary.com

  The Cochrane Library is a collection of six databases that contain different types of high-quality, independent evidence to inform healthcare decision-making, and a seventh database that provides information about groups in The Cochrane Collaboration.

  The Cochrane Collaboration, established in 1993, is an international network of more than 28,000 people from over 100 countries. They work together to help health care providers, policy-makers, patients, their advocates and careers, make well-informed decisions about health care, based on the best available research evidence, by preparing, updating and promoting the accessibility of Cochrane Reviews – over 4,600 so far, published online in The Cochrane Library. Their work is internationally recognized as the benchmark for high quality information about the effectiveness of health care.

- The Chicago Manual of Style Online - http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html

  The Chicago Manual of Style Online provides convenient tools such as sample correspondence, proofreaders’ marks, and a quick guide to citation. It incorporates the popular Chicago Style Q&A. The Q&A content is fully searchable along with the content of The Chicago Manual of Style. Students, researchers, writers can get help for help citing sources by using the Quick Guide to see clear examples of how to use Chicago-style citation.

- Early English Books Online (EEBO) - http://eebo.chadwyck.com

  Early English Books Online (EEBO) contains digital facsimile page images of virtually every work printed in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and British North America and works in English printed elsewhere from 1473-1700 - from the first book printed in English by William Caxton, through the age of Spenser and Shakespeare and the tumult of the English Civil War.

  From the first book published in English through the age of Spenser and Shakespeare, this incomparable collection now contains more than 125,000 titles listed in Pollard & Redgrave’s Short-Title Catalogue (1475-1640) and Wing's Short-Title Catalogue (1641-1700) and their revised editions, as well as the Thomason Tracts (1640-1661) collection and the Early English Books Tract Supplement. Libraries possessing this collection find they are able to fulfill the most exhaustive research requirements of graduate scholars - from their desktop - in many subject areas, including English literature, history, philosophy, linguistics, theology, music, fine arts, education, mathematics, and science.

Oxford Biblical Studies Online provides a comprehensive resource for the study of the Bible and biblical history. The integration of authoritative scholarly texts and reference works with tools that provide ease of research into the background, context, and issues related to the Bible make Oxford Biblical Studies Online a valuable resource not only for college students, scholars, and clergy, but also anyone in need of an authoritative, ecumenical, and up-to-date resource. Easy to search and navigate, this site offers a ready access point for a wealth of Bible text and commentary.

• Oxford History of Western Music Online - http://www.oxfordwesternmusic.com/

The Oxford History of Western Music online offers an unmatched account of the evolution of Western classical music by one of the most prominent and provocative musicologists of our time, Richard Taruskin. Since its original publication in print Taruskin’s landmark study has received universal acclaim and numerous awards. The full text, which was printed in five thick volumes in print, is now available for the first time in an interactive digital format. The online version includes all 1.25 million words, 500 images, and 1,800 musical examples from the updated paperback edition with sophisticated search and browse functionality designed to maximize the dynamic possibilities of online reading and research.

• JSTOR Arts & Sciences VIII and IX - http://www.jstor.org/

The Arts & Sciences VIII Collection broadens JSTOR's coverage of core humanities disciplines including history, language & literature, art & art history, and education. This collection also includes a group of rare 19th and early 20th century American Art periodicals digitized as part of a special project undertaken with the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Frick Collection, and the Brooklyn Museum of Art. This collection also includes journals in philosophy, classical studies, and music.

With a minimum of 150 titles available by the end of 2012, the Arts & Sciences IX Collection widens JSTOR’s coverage in business and the social sciences. Journals from more than 25 countries provide outstanding international diversity, and rare materials bring unique depth to the collection, with research covering archaeology, anthropology, sociology, business, economics, population studies, and political science.

• Communication & Mass Media Complete (CMMC) - http://www.ebscohost.com/public/communication-mass-media-complete

Communication & Mass Media Complete™ provides the most robust, quality research solution in areas related to communication and mass media. CMMC incorporates the content of CommSearch (formerly produced by the National Communication Association) and Mass Media Articles Index (formerly produced by Penn State) along with numerous other journals in communication, mass media, and other closely-related fields of study to create a research and reference resource of unprecedented scope and depth encompassing the breadth of the communication discipline.
