Upcoming Gumberg Library Presentations

All presentations will take place in room 408 Gumberg Library

February

Researching the Bible with Oxford Biblical Studies Online
Presenter: Ted Bergfelt
Friday, February 17, noon-1 p.m.
This 60 minute workshop will be presented for members of the Duquesne community interested in learning more about the books of the Bible, their historical contexts and meaning. Oxford Biblical Studies Online contains five translations of the Bible published by Oxford, and study notes from five popular study Bibles. It also provides access to two concordances, a dozen well-respected works of biblical reference, and almost 1,000 searchable images.

Advanced RefWorks
Presenter: Emily Cantin
Thursday, February 23, 5-6 p.m.
After attending “Getting Started With RefWorks,” come learn more about additional features, adding in-text citations and footnotes with Write-n-Cite, and how to format a paper and bibliography from within RefWorks.

Copyright for Instructors: Opportunities & Considerations
Presenters: Sara Grozanick, Diana Sasso, John Euliano, & Alyson Youngblood
Friday, February 24, noon-1:15 p.m.
Basic understanding of copyright is essential for both online and classroom instructors. This 75 minute workshop will introduce Duquesne’s copyright policy and fair use guidelines.
